

I am 100% opposed to the weakening of Indiana's Law of Telephone Privacy. I have caller ID and will not answer the phone if I do not know the caller. This helps, but I still get the phone ringing at times that I can't get to it. If I should hurry to answer it and it is a Company or Business I am going to just hang up.